STORM'S DIRE EFFECT.

New Yorkers Beginning to Feel It With a Vengeance.

FOOD ADVANCES IN PRICE.

Supply Rather Short, Snow Making Transportation Impossible.

RAILWAYS ARE STILL TIED UP.

However, Smiling Skies and Abating Winds Give Promise of a Goodly Morrow—Ocean Steamers Are Now Flocking Into Port.

New York, Feb. 14.—The people of New York are enjoying the first sunshine they have had since Friday, but the situation as regards railway traffic continues serious. The city is still cut off for the most part from rail communication with the outside world.

No out-of-town mails were received in the city during the night. An attempt will be made to send away at least a portion of the out-going mails which are piled up in the New York and Brooklyn postoffices.

A New York Central train which left the Grand Central depot arrived at Tarrytown, after fighting snowdrifts all night. The train had about 200 women on board. New York City is coming now to feel the effects of the storm on its food supply. Provisions have almost doubled in price. The warehouses are full of flour, but the deep snow in the streets makes delivery almost impossible.

The coal supply in New York is limited, and barges from Perth Amboy and other terminal points cannot reach their slips because of the ice. Many factories have been compelled to shut down. The suffering among the poor is intense.

Mrs. Charles Morrissey, a widow, 70, of Jersey City, sank exhausted in the snow, and died before medical assistance could arrive. Mary Dolan, 70, was found frozen to death in her room.

For Relief of the Poor.

New York, Feb. 14.—In response to the piteous cries for aid that went up from many sections of the city, Governor Roosevelt has ordered the opening of all the regimental armories for the shelter of such portions of the homeless poor as might take refuge there. "I am aware that there is some question as to whether or not I have the legal right to do this," said the governor, in announcing what he had done, "but I feel confident that the legislature will back me up in what I have done."

Travelers Snowbound.

Pittsburg, Feb. 14.—Over 200 persons who were on western trains leaving here Sunday and Monday are snowbound at Altoona and are quartered at the Logan house. A made-up section of the fast line was started from Altoona, but it stuck in a snowdrift at Allegheny and is still imprisoned there. The passengers were taken back to Altoona. A cattle train was caught in the storm and every animal perished. A car load of hogs was frozen.

Special Weather Bulletin.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The great Atlantic coast storm has passed on to the Nova Scotia coast with rapid velocity and almost unprecedented development. Owing to the extent and the extreme destructiveness this storm will always be remembered as the greatest storm in the history of the Atlantic coast states. An area of low pressure is approaching from the far west, and under its influence the temperatures will be generally rising.

Ocean Steamers Coming In.

New York, Feb. 14.—With a clear sky overhead once more, the ocean steamers began coming in. First the Cunarder Etruria and Holland-American liner Spaarndam were sighted off Fire Island. Next the American liner Paris was sighted off the highlands. Then the Anchor line Anchoria, from Glasgow, was reported in quarantine. Two other steamers also came in.

Crew Still Missing.

Baltimore, Feb. 14.—It was said at the office of the Merchants and Miners' Steamship company that no word had reached there from the three boats reported missing and containing officers and members of the crew of the steamship Lawrence, reported off Port Royal S. C. All officers and members of the crew of the Lawrence live here.

Storm Has Ceased.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The storm has swept past Washington, and the sun shines bright from a clear blue sky on a city buried approximately three feet deep in snow. Washington is cut off from railroad communication with the outside world, but now that the storm has ceased the companies have started to open up their lines.

Zero In Florida.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 14.—Telegraphic communication to Florida has been kept up spasmodically only the past two days. It has been ascertained that the coolest weather ever known had just passed over the northern part of Florida. The zero mark was reached at Pensacola.

Snow Up to the Second Stories.

Boston, Feb. 14.—Boston and vicinity is snowbound after two days and two nights of continuous snowfall. The streets are badly blocked, trains are stalled, and on all sides the snow is piled into great drifts, some of which, in the suburbs, reach to the second story windows. The street car lines, by continuous efforts on the part of the management, were kept free.

Damaged by Gales.

New York, Feb. 14.—The steamer Catania, which left St. Michaels, where she had put in for repairs 19 days ago, and about whose safety much anxiety was felt, passed Sandy Hook, bound in. The Catania left Glasgow on Dec. 18 for New York and put in to St. Michaels on Jan. 4, much damaged from gales.

Trolley Cars Buried.

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—The storm has abated in this vicinity, but traffic of every sort is absolutely at a standstill. The trolley car tracks are buried under yards of drifted snow, and the task of exhuming them seems a hopeless one. Only a minimum amount of business is being transacted.

No Loss Reported.

Washington, 14.—The life saving service has received no reports of disaster to shipping. The superintendent said that the gale had been off shore and had blown vessels out to sea. He thought the loss to shipping therefore would not be heavy, though some craft may have foundered at sea.

Eastbound Traffic Off.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 14.—After battling against unequal odds with cold weather for five days the railroads have succumbed, and not a through train has left Pittsburg for the east since Monday. Officials were all at sea and were unable to say when traffic could be resumed.

Passenger Train Stalled.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Up to the hour of the convening of the legislature no trains had yet arrived in Albany from any direction. The legislative train which left New York on Monday is stalled down the river, and many members of the legislature are detained there.

Sterling Safe.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Secretary Sharwood, of the Philadelphia Maritime Exchange, telegraphed the navy department: "I am pleased to advise that the Sterling, due to a change of wind, has reached a safe anchorage."

Aged Couple Frozen to Death.

Huntington, W. Va., Feb. 14.—Robert Fowler, 83, and Mary Halstead, 74, were frozen to death in the Guyan valley. It is believed that many deaths from similar cause have occurred in that isolated section.

Completely Blocked.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 14.—Wilmington emerged from the blizzard bright and smiling, but buried under snowdrifts that completely stopped travel on the steam railroads passing through the city.

An Overdue Steamer.

Lewes, Del., Feb. 14.—The American line steamship Belgenland, from Liverpool for Philadelphia, due to arrive a week ago, has not been reported and great anxiety is felt for her safety.

Developments at Adams Inquest.

New York, Feb. 14.—Roland B. Molineaux was present when the investigation at the inquest of Mrs. Kate Adams was resumed. He was asked to recall any dispute he had ever had with Harry Cornish, of the Kniekerbocker Athletic club, and in reply said that their first differences of opinion had occurred in 1896 over improper language used in the club by a man named French. Molineaux complained to Cornish, but got no satisfaction. Mr. Molineaux said that his next difference with Cornish was in the beginning of 1897, when he was asked to get up an amateur circus for April 29. He was chairman of the circus committee and Cornish worked against him in every way he could.

Official From Dewey.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The navy department has received the following Manilla cablegram from Admiral Dewey: "Petrel just arrived from Manilla. That place taken by our force Saturday and now occupied. No prisoners. No casualties on our side. Insurgent loss not known, but believed to be slight. They attempted to burn town, but foreign property generally saved by our force."

IT WAS EASY PICKING.

Capture of Iloilo Accomplished Without an American Mishap.

REBELS' LOSS VERY LIGHT.

Further Particulars of the Storming and Investment of the Capital of the Island of Pauay by the American Troops.

Manilla, Feb. 14.—Particulars of the capture of Iloilo by the United States forces under Brigadier General M. D. Miller, upon Saturday last, have been received here.

On the morning of Friday, Feb. 10, General Miller sent an ultimatum to the commander of the rebels on shore, notifying him that if was his intention to take Iloilo, by force if necessary. Non-combatants and foreigners were warned to leave town within 24 hours. The rebels were also warned that they must make no further belligerent preparations.

The gunboat Petrel was then moved to a position close in shore and near the rebel fort, while the cruiser Boston took up her station at the other end of the town. Friday passed quietly. During the day many refugees left the town of Iloilo. The majority of them were taken on board foreign ships lying in the harbor.

Searchlights from the United States warships were kept all night long illuminating the town and its defenses. The rebels, so far as the lookout on the ships could discover, remained quiet throughout the night.

At 8 o'clock on the morning of Saturday, Feb. 11, the gunboat Petrel signalled to the cruiser Boston that the rebels were working in their trenches. In return the Petrel was ordered to fire warning shots upon the town from her three-pounders. This was done and the rebels replied with a harmless fusillade. The Boston and the Petrel then bombarded the rebels' trenches, completely clearing them of their occupants in a very short space of time.

Fired the Town.

Soon after the bombardment began flames broke out simultaneously in various parts of the town. Thereupon 48 marines, acting as infantry and artillery, were landed from the cruiser Boston, and a company was sent ashore from the gunboat Petrel. These detachments marched straight into the town of Iloilo, and hoisting the stars and stripes over the fort, took possession of the place in the name of the United States.

The capture of the town and its defenses having been accomplished, the marines and soldiers who had been sent ashore proceeded to the task of saving the American, English and German consulates from destruction by the fire which raged among the frail and inflammable buildings of the town. The Swiss consul's residence, which was in the same row as the consulates named, was burned. The entire Chinese and native sections of the town were destroyed, but foreign mercantile property escaped with slight damage.

There was some desultory firing by the enemy in the outskirts of Iloilo, but not a single American was injured. General Miller's force had complete control of the situation when the gunboat Petrel sailed from Iloilo for Manilla. The Sixth United States artillery regiment occupied a position commanding both the bridges leading into the town, and the Tennessee volunteers and the Eighteenth United States infantry were occupying the trenches that had been constructed by the rebels.

This Is Worthy of Emulation.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The city council, of Wurzburg, Bavaria, has just taken action which Commercial Agent Ster, of Bamberg, says is worthy of imitation in the United States. In accordance with this action the teeth of the poor pupils of the public schools of Wurzburg, are to be examined and cared for free of cost, provided the parents gave their consent. It is also intended to treat diseases of the ear and throat in like manner, should the teeth experiment prove successful.

Spanish Prisoners Sail Away.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The war department received the following advice from General Otis under date of Manilla, Feb. 14: "One hundred and eighty officers and 1,800 men, Spanish prisoners of war, left port on the 12th and 13th by steamers Reina Christina and Uruguay, enroute to Spain."

In Committee of the Whole.

Washington, Feb. 14.—About 100 members of the house were in their places, when Speaker Reed called the house to order. After passing several bills of minor importance, the house went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill.

FIRE, WATER AND SMOKE.

Half Million of Property Destroyed in the Heart of Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 14.—A fire causing a loss of $500,000 started mysteriously in the upper back stories of the hat manufactory of Kahn, Falheimer & Co., on West Third street, near Race, and before the engines could get to work had communicated to the clothing house of H. A. Seinsheimer & Co. Next to that stood the corner building, occupied by Sanford, Varner & Storrs, containing a valuable stock of clothing and material.

The first named buildings were entirely burned out. The firemen succeeded in saving the corner building at the expense of practically ruining the contents. The entire fire department was called and a perfect deluge of water was thrown. Nevertheless the fire found its way into the rear of buildings fronting on Race street, occupied by S. L. Waller & Co., Louis Wald & Co., and Reins & Meins, all clothiers, and causing considerable loss, though it was checked before the buildings were destroyed.

In an hour the fire was under control after a stubborn fight, in which the firemen suffered from the cold and the floods of water through which they were obliged to walk. The guests at the St. Nicholas hotel became alarmed by the proximity of the fire, and most of them prepared for flight. Snow covering the roofs of adjacent buildings extinguished the shower of sparks and the flying brands that were carried by the wind. The insurance is about two-thirds of the loss.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Feb. 14.—The Akron Excelsior club, Akron; the Farrington Lumber company, Winton Place, $50,000; the Knights and Ladies of Lafayette, Findlay; the Minor Fire Brick company, Cleveland, $50,000; the Sehrzschild & Sulzberger Beef company, Cleveland, $5,000.

Through Funeral Procession.

Massillon, O., Feb. 14.—A Pennsylvania train crashed through Mrs. Thomas Ratchford's funeral procession at North Lawrence. The horses attached to one carriage were instantly killed. The occupants were thrown over an embankment, narrowly escaping death.

Murdered by Disease.

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—The police have come to the conclusion that heart disease is the murderer of Jacob Gerbrand, whose dead body was found in the engine room of the Hunt stamping works early Monday morning covered with wounds, and that rats are the murderers.

Blaze in a Hotel.

Elyria, O., Feb. 14.—A fire in the Topliff hotel filled the house with smoke, and caused great excitement among the guests. The loss amounts to $2,000, fully insured. The loss was mostly caused by smoke and water.

Newspaper Change.

Ashland, O., Feb. 14.—The Ashland Daily News-Journal was sold to Mrs. Thomas Ratchford's funeral procession at North Lawrence. The horses attached to one carriage were instantly killed. The occupants were thrown over an embankment, narrowly escaping death.

Massillon Boy Among the Killed.

Massillon, O., Feb. 14.—Samuel Koons, of Massillon, is reported killed at Manilla. Koons enlisted in a California regiment.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Feb. 14.

Silas Jones and his six children were burned to death on the Richardson and May plantation at Cornerstone. Jones' house and all its contents were destroyed.

Miles Court of Inquiry.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The Miles' chambers court of inquiry will not begin Wednesday, some members being stormbound.

Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, first took the floor in opposition to the McEnery resolution and in favor of retaining the Philippines. Lindsay (Ky.) and Bacon (Ga.) also opposed the McEnery resolution. Mr. Mason said that he voted for the treaty with the understanding that there should be no further war in the Philippines.

HERE'S THE VIEW

Of the War Commission's Report Taken by a Leading London Journal.

LONDON, February 14.—Commenting upon the report of the special commission appointed by President McKinley to investigate the conduct of the War Department in the war with Spain, the Times says:

"We are not surprised that the American public greets it with derision. President McKinley's loyalty to Secretary Alger is natural and even commendable, but if the United States is to have able administrators it is absolutely essential that those at its head shall be above suspicion. If the taint of politics is once fastened upon the new colonial administration our hopes of its future must be considerably dashed."

Hindu Widow's Lot.

[Exchange.]

Action is being taken by certain enlightened natives to ameliorate the shocking condition of the average Hindu widow, says the Bombay Advocate, of India. To begin with, the Indian widow is shaved bald, and can only hide her baldness with her cloth; she is deprived of all jewelry, wears coarser clothes than the rest of womankind, must fast on certain days and every day has fewer meals than are taken as a rule by the rest of the family. The scheme of relief afoot is that no widow shall be shaved until she is twenty-one, the age at which it may be supposed that she will be able to show a will of her own in case she objects.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

RIVER NEWS.

New City of Pittsburg Reported Badly Damaged by the Ice—Big Flood Certain When Breakup Comes.

MARIETTA, O., February 14.—The Ohio river is frozen over near the City of Pittsburg, below the Muskingum river. Ice is blocking fast and heavy. The City of Pittsburg's loss will be in the neighborhood of $10,000. The hog chain is broken and two boats are working with her, trying to get her back into the water and into the mouth of the Muskingum. Ice had closed in above her and it can't be moved. She was to leave Marietta next week and go to Pittsburg, where she was to take a party to New Orleans. She cost $50,000 and was built by Captain Phillips, of Pittsburgh.

A gorge ten miles long is reported in the Ohio at New Haven, W. Va.

The latest reports from the towboat Fred Wilson, sunk below Ravenswood by ice, is that she is liable to be a total wreck. After being pumped out she stranded again and broke in two, the heavy hog chains parting.

With from two to three feet of snow in the upper Ohio valley and the mountains south of the river, there is certain to be another big flood when the breakup comes. If the thaw should be sudden, and accompanied by a rain, the Ohio is sure to pass the danger mark. The snow is resting on frozen ground, which adds to the threatening condition of affairs in the mountains.

CORNEILSON DEAD.

A Episode That Lead to the Suicide of Judge Reid Recalled.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 14.—Attorney John J. Corneilson, the lawyer who horse-whipped Judge Richard Reid at Mt. Sterling fifteen years ago because Reid, as Judge of the Superior Court of Kentucky, had rendered a decision adverse to Corneilson, died here to-day of apoplexy. Judge Reid received letters and telegrams from prominent men all over the United States telling him to allow the law to take its course with Corneilson, and "not kill him as the Kentucky code prescribed."

Reid, who was a prominent churchman, decided he would not kill Corneilson. He made a powerful speech in the Mt. Sterling court house a few days after the whipping to a large crowd, in which he said he was determined to live up to his religious professions, would allow the law alone to deal with the man who had assaulted him, and, through him, one of the highest courts in the State.

Corneilson was arrested and placed in jail, although every technicality his lawyers could devise was used, he was not allowed his liberty. He spent three years in jail as punishment.

About a week after Judge Reid made his celebrated speech he blew his brains out with a revolver. He thought his people condemned him for not taking the law into his own hands and killing Corneilson.

FOUR THOUSAND

Words a Minute Sent By a New Telegraph System—Company Chartered to Push it.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 9.—The Cerehore-Squire Company, of this city, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000, to conduct a telegraph business. The promoters of the new company state that they will adopt a new system, invented by Messrs. Cerehore and Squire, which will revolutionize telegraphy.

"We expect to put up wires throughout the country," said Colonel Albert F. Squire, one of the inventors of the system, to-day, "and in a short time the present time will have become a thing of the past. Our invention is called the 'Sign Wave' system. We have sent as high as 4,000 words per minute by the system. It was tested by the Government about six months ago.

"Over 3,000 words were sent at that time. The receiving instrument prints the message out on paper."

It is said the invention will greatly expedite cable communication.

Among the incorporators of the company is Harry A. Garfield, eldest son of President Garfield.

S. H. MAYFIELD, living near Ripley, sold some land and went to Cincinnati to find a wife. He joined a matrimonial bureau, and told the manager how much money he had and where he was stopping on Broadway. He had only been at the house a few days when a man called at the house to get a room and was assigned to the one Mayfield occupied, as the two agreed to each pay half of the rent. Early the next morning the newcomer got up early and, taking Mayfield's money out of the trunk, skipped out. The police have a clew to his whereabouts, and developments of a startling nature are expected when he is arrested, says the Enquirer.

The Montgomery Courier says: "He has just obtained his discharge from the navy where he has been occupied as electrician and first gunner on board the United States armed cruiser 'Hast,' under Captain Lucien Young, of Kentucky. He has seen a great deal of service in the past war with Spain, and was engaged in three naval battles off Manzanillo, and took part in the defeat of Cervera at San- tiago. He is entitled to some prize money, and his Captain tells him, by the time his grandchildren are grown, he may be able to secure it."

ALGER ON THE ARMY BILL.

If It Falls to Pass the Volunteers Will Never Be Released.

New York, Feb. 14.—Speaking at the Brooklyn Union League Club's Lincoln Day Banquet, Secretary of War Alger said that few men could realize what a task it was to gather quarter of a million men from all over the country, arm and equip them, tent them, transport them and make camps for them, to transport 50,000 of them to points 12,000 miles apart, fight battles and close up the war in 113 days.

"When the great call rang out on the 23d of April," said General Alger, "thousands of men offered themselves from all over the country. A quarter of a million were taken, and for what they have done they have no apologies to make to the world. They are acquitted themselves as American soldiers. Of the 250,000 men who came, 150,000 have returned to their homes, 125,000 now remain, and we hope that soon we shall have an army such as is fitting for this mighty nation, that we can relieve these volunteers. If this is denied us, I want to pledge you that the men in the field, though their time may be up, will never be released."
